CEFR Level

CEFR is an acronym that stand for Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

CEFR levels are a method for describing language ability.

The following table describes the CEFR levels:

C2	Proficiency C1 skills Can easily understand almost everything they see and hear Can express themselves fluently and spontaneously with precision in complex situations
C1	Advanced B2 Skills Can understand wide range of long, complex texts Can interact and express themselves fluently and spontaneously Can use language effectively in social, academic, and professional situations
B2	Upper Intermediate B1 skills Can understand main ideas of complex text Can interact with some fluency and communicate easily Can write clear, detailed text on wide range of topics and express their opinion
B1	Intermediate A2 skills Can understand familiar topics Can communicate while traveling in an English-speaking area Can write simple text on familiar topics
A2	Pre-Intermediate A1 skills Interact in simple and direct changes of information Describe things around them Describe things they need
A1	Elementary Communicate using everyday expressions and very basic phrases Can introduce themselves Ask and answer simple questions about personal details

Revision #2
Created 2024-08-26 22:29:29 UTC by Tim Fatout

Updated 2024-08-29 22:02:41 UTC by Tim Fatout